Hawthorne Race 1

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

Rivelli had #3 KISS N BIZ scheduled to debut here at Hawthorne at the maiden claiming level twice back in June. The placement today suggests intent along with her debut effort strong enough in its own right to support her in this race. #5 SUMMER SWINGER will default here to Hawthorne as a MN-bred at the close of the Canterbury season. She is one of the older runners in this field as a four-year-old and her current form fits at this condition. Barandela will take over today and as a more patient rider she projects to stalk the early pacesetters and look for first run. #10 HAPPY SAILS could hold a class edge exiting higher race par maiden events at HS Indy. She will make her second start at the maiden claiming level with upside from the August 6th race making an early wide move with extra ground loss off the turn and into the lane where she was not asked late.
