Stakes Spotlight

Del Mar Race 7

Post Time 5:30 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

The race dynamic should be honest early and setup for runners from off that pace. That dynamic flatters #2 NADETTE as she returns from the 196-day layoff and has a slight class edge based on competitive, often BTL efforts in graded stakes company. NADETTE should offer value over #5 DOLCE ZEL returning from another layoff - the 342-day break into this race. While that pair is proven on class, #9 YERWANTHERE brings in recency and off a pair of solid (BTL on 8/26) and recent B+ OptixGRADE allowance win two weeks ago and should hold her form in this spot.
