Stakes Spotlight

Churchill Downs Race 10

#9 SAFEEN looks to have intent as she makes her second start of the cycle. She has that edge on fitness as well as class stakes form and with a graded stakes win. Her RunStyle suits today's race shape as she holds tactical speed and finishing ability.

Del Mar Race 7

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

This is a competitive event where a case can be made for just about every runner in this field. #4 PLANETARIO looked legit over this course in the Del Mar Handicap (G2) though did not fire his best that day and might have needed the time off he returns from here. #3 LUKKA is a new face and looks to have intent with Drysdale picking this spot for his local. Looking at the work tab and him on the track training, he comes into this race fit and should give an honest account. Depending on the tactics from Smith on #5 ASTRONAUT, a runner that has RunStyle versatility, taking off the pace could allow a "lone" scenario for #6 BALLADEER, the trip (and track BIAS) that carried him to the John Henry (G2) win.
