#12 YODA BLITZ debuted last month here at Hawthorne and given a follow off the debut. He made a positive/PRERACE+ impression in the paddock and showed run after a SLOG and in TRAFFIC.

Presque Isle Downs Race 6

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

#1 MAJOR WAGER wheels right back for the connections and out of the Hawthorne closing day turf sprint, a day with the course playing fast. MAJOR WAGER showed run, especially late with a sneaky CLOSE. That closing run should transfer back to the synthetic and for today's race shape.

The pace projects to be contentious to assist morning line favorite, #2 THE SINNER IS YOU but a short is expected. #8 GENERAL WINSTON can also be upgraded with his RunStyle and returning from the August 28th common race and should be higher than the 3.2-1 odds 16-days ago.
