Hawthorne Race 5

8 Rockin Vic 1 Allegheny Hanover 9 Ara Dash

The potential for a nice return in here comes from post draw more than anything. Last out, 8-ROCKIN VIC got stuck inside and was shuffled into the turn before finding room too late to close. I expect he gets into the outer flow a bit earlier in this spot tonight. He may just be one of those horses that doesn't race well when drawn inside, as seen from recent starts. 1-ALLEGHENY HANOVER is going to take the action off the recent races in Indiana. That's a strip that typically plays much more quickly than Hawthorne and this one may be overbet. The likelihood that Dandy's World gets sent after him early with the P-driver may compromise his chances a bit as well. 9-ARA DASH hasn't had great trips in his last couple and will need things to unfold the right way to win from the outside. The best route to go may be to follow Rockin Vic into the lane and see if he can roll on late.
