Emily's Analysis

Turfway Park Race 5

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

#11 TOFFEE APPLE turned in a winning/B effort on debut and was compromised with TROUBLE+ and poor weather conditions, that had the card cancelled after their race. The added ground in in play though should have no issues with the distance change especially coming in with foundation in this third start.

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

#1 ABITIBI takes the class drop to move her up naturally in today's claiming event. The race shape also suits her runstyle as the early pace should be contentious/Fire and honest/46 SpeedRate to set up her tracking run.
