#2 BILLY'S BET had a longshot look showing up in the 8/31 race with intent second off and after racing above condition off the layoff on 8/11. With that said, the trip played against them as the field BUNCHED up and the TACTIC- had them stacked WIDE on a solid pace impacting the outcome. They wheel right back in this spot and with a rider change where a rebound can be projected and longer odds still hold.

EB JOHNSON STAKES:

Sadler might have claimed #8 FAST DRAW MUNNINGS with this very race in mind. They ran in this stakes race last year finishing a strong second to a horse called Kings River Knight, a horse trained by Sadler. In terms of trip, FAST DRAW MUNNINGS has shown early speed (X_FLOW in the 8/31 layoff return) though going back to his sophomore season showed he could rate and finish and that could be the plan here - at the least with options given the outside post.

#1 RASHMI turned in a strong BTL effort in their debut at DEL back in July as the lone runner in the field to make up ground - WIDE MOVE X_FLOW. They were cold on the board two weeks ago at KYD and the quick two week turnaround and shift to this circuit appears to suggest intent.
