Handicapping Analysis
Thu October 23rd, 2025

Emily's Analysis

Hawthorne Race 1

Post Time 2:43 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

#1 JACKSON'S BUDDY moved up with the class drop last month at HS Indy and can project to hold form on this circuit finding a lateral change. Their effort over poor WEATHER impacted track conditions can be upgraded making a RUSH (into Fast early race shape) and continued WIDE on a DUEL with the winner, My Miley's Vow from off the pace. They can project to be forward once again remaining at the route distance though does not project to be lone in that role especially with #2 MY LAST ESCAPADE to their outside another that should try and be forward once again and fit stretching out from the recent route.

On the opposite side and noted with the Sun/67 SpeedRate a scenario for runner from off the pace. That should allow #5 BLACK RUSSIAN their best chance to clear the maiden condition. This longtime maiden has run consistently this ear and worth upgrading on the return to the main track along with the positive swing in form cycle pattern. #4 CRUZIN N CURSIN must get faster to compete though with that said, today's dynamic moves them up and should be sitting on a peak effort in this third start of the cycle. As shown in the Past 3 Runlines improving numbers and Grades and going back to last summer popped with the place outside and B-OptixGRADE in the third start series cycle.

Hawthorne Race 2

Post Time 3:19 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

With the rails down in the final two weeks of the meet this will allow a chance to see how the course is play and following some natural watering on Sunday. With the rails out last Thursday inside was key (#4 ALADANTE taking advantage for example) and should that come back into play perhaps the edge with #1 WHATDOYOUTHINKMARK inside of #3 RAVIN'S TOWN both pacesetters playable in this race and capable while well-spotted.

#5 BALADINE requires a trip though fits just as well and with projected intent. They might have needed the conditioning with the 42-day break into the 10/2 start (PREP) and from there wheel back here three weeks later with the return to claiming company looking for that first 2025 win.

Hawthorne Race 3

Post Time 3:51 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

Tough to see the edge for #4 COOL LESTER SMOOTH as the favorite in this race as they must step up in the speed figure department coming into this race lighter than their rivals in the category. #1 BYWORD with a competitive effort at the level on 10/2 did also have the race flow in their favor – Fast early with the top three together at the wire.

By speed figure contrast #6 TANGO MIKE MIKE has the consistent higher figures and arguable class edge. They are a photo going the other way back on 8/18 that would have them ineligible for today's N2 condition. Perhaps the one knock against others is the lack of recency and local experience coming in off the two month break.

On the top of two, M. Perez with the pair and both with reason to make the case: #2 GAME SANTA steps up against winners though has shown run in each of the three starts this season with progression race-to-race. S. Gonzalez takes over as L. Colon sticks with #3 WOLF HUNTER one with plenty of foundation and while has had some hurdles getting up on the win end, a lot of that has been due to class and when placed at the right level for their abilities (the placement today) they compete and stack up as a contender.

If making the case for #5 SKIBIDI RIZZ it comes on class with today's lower race par since taking on winners and their flow-aided front running MCL win back in July. They find a similar par to that event which could be key and perhaps even positive timing coming back from the 10/9 race on the two week turnaround noting the "trip" making a WIDE RUSH (race shape Very Fast early/Fast late) and in hand (NO_PUSH) after losing (NO_KEEP) ground.

Hawthorne Race 4

Post Time 4:24 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

The big reservation on #3 CHURCH PEW is not as individual rather than projected shorter odds with an off the pace runstyle. Otherwise they fit this race all around and back under similar conditions with the place finish behind first run winner, Oh Macarena on 9/25.

If the number is shorter on CHURCH PEW there are alternative ways to land in this race even when looking at the Plot to find similar position/shape runners. #7 WHAT'S TO DO upgraded with the change in class from 9/14, turned in a competitive B- OptixGRADE at the level starting out the cycle on 8/14 and should have their peak effort today third out. #5 SPICY ITALIAN does not have the same size Square though favorable position at the same and holding similar B- OptixGRADE effort at the level.

Both WHAT'S TO DO and SPICY ITALIAN will look to establish first run on CHURCH PEW though still need the honest pace (Sun/50 SpeedRate) to develop in front of them. That does appear the pace especially with #1 MARY MOONGLOW stretching out from the rail to keep #2 REGAL MAJESTY honest on the lead along with lone E Runstyle horse, #6 QURBAAN D ORO.

Hawthorne Race 5

Post Time 4:53 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

RACE 5: The analysis starts with the pair of A. Hernandez runners though ends with finding the overlay on the board:

#1 RACARINO upgraded off their current form cycle, competitive races at the level, sits ABOVE on Speed though in terms of trip must overcome the inside draw. They have shown gate issues (SLOG/RUSH) as of late though to hustle from the inside could track behind projected pacesetters, #2 XPRESSIR, potentially #4 OFF TO THE RACES, and #6 ALL ABOUT TONITE and look for first run.

#8 COMISKEY PARK is ABOVE+ based on their overall career, and tough to discount. With that said, there was some concern adding front wraps on 9/11 and something to look for today in the paddock. Again some reservation, with the 42-days between starts, however encouraging with O. Mojica aboard and published 10/5 move.

Looking to play spoiler: #3 MON AMI FUZZIE wins this race with the return to the 7/27 B effort. While that race at today's distance, par and condition, they had a change in race shape that day with the Fire/50 and today's dynamic a shift to Snowflake/10. #5 KING OF THE PALACE had a massive class edge with the drop on 9/25 though a significant drop on the day. While the figure and 4th place outcome does not "jump off the page" the B-OptixGRADE counters positively.

#9 DICK BEST also could be overlooked off their 4th place outcome at this level on 9/18; which would be a mistake. They started on as the BOS through the X_FLOW (Very Fast early/late) and brings in a positive "every other" positive form pattern into this spot. Today's potential dynamic race has not always been the most ideal for #10 LAND MARK DEAL though off Standard (current form) and the outside perhaps can track closer today and playable at the right number.

Hawthorne Race 6

Post Time 5:20 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

A group of runners returning from the 10/2 common race and while outcome might suggest looking elsewhere willing to give a look back to #2 MARTINI MAN. The made a positive PRERACE+ appearance while on the day giving up recency just a belated second start on the year and 98-days into that event three weeks ago. Given that pattern of timing, the return here could be a positive and the longer projected odds to add further appear.

They will meet the BOS show finish in #4 SHAKE UP though a look to their J. Berndt stablemate on the outside in #9 TIME MUSE one that will find the SHORTER distance today and with today's Fire/33 SpeedRate they could find the key trip for this distance while bringing in current form.

#1 GOOD APPLE also bringing in current form though will be tested with that most recent start and win just 12-days ago, as a repeat effort could be required to take the top spot once again. That is a greater concern than the surface switch, in my opinion, as they started out on the yielding turf in a MSW at the FG with a SLOG only to show up during the first part of the 2024 Hawthorne meet (no turf available at that time) to break their maiden in dominant B+ fashion over the main track and continued to hold their form and figures with the series of B-OptixGRADES in open and allowance company before claimed for $25k last August and has been protected since.

Hawthorne Race 7

Post Time 5:49 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

The analysis starts with the pace and looking at the Plot the horse to catch and run down in #3 BERNIE LOMAX on the front end as a Large Square above the ParLine. While they project to be kept honest with #8 SWEET LA CREMA in the race, they still could present a pace advantage over their main rivals.

Those main rivals had #5 EASY FAST tracking as a Q4 Square and overall form fits however does appear to lack value if favored not only with runstyle as they show up off the N2 claiming win, but today's race par also is higher and follows a step up in class that might not be as "on paper" obvious. By contrast the change in class is closer to a lateral move for #7 FINDAWAY and while they have perhaps other hurdles to clear on the win end, should land higher of the two on the board.

#2 RED MOSCATO should be flying under the radar given the recent finishing position. Today's change in class an be taken closer to a lateral move while upgraded on this circuit. That carried to today's conditions going back to 8/3 with the OptixGRADE effort finishing in a photo for the win.

Hawthorne Race 8

Post Time 6:18 PM CST

Analysis by Emily Gullikson

#1 SHE BE SHEEHAN opened as the favorite and took a lot of wagering support making the layoff return earlier this month. Those factors created hurdles and lacked an edge playing out on the track and to outcome. With that race under their belt and key STRETCH in distance has the conditioning on their side and paired with the rail draw should be forward from the jump looking to take this field as far as they can on the lead.

The lack of recency comes into play today for #10 LEGALLY LUCKY one that otherwise fits as a contender. They are overdue for a win on the year with some very competitive races at OP and similar over the Hawthorne main track

Looking at the Plot along with respecting the Sun/60 SpeedRate, SHE BE SHEEHAN should be tested in that role with others both sitting in Q1 as well as above the ParLine. That contested scenario can assist #6 LITTLE DIXIE on trip and the change in class to further intent for today’s race and closing part of the meet to look for the win.

Making the case for LITTLE DIXIE and LEGALLY LUCKY and looking at the Plot and “chasing” #9 TALL GIRL would need to include for insanity purposes in this spot. While more could have been expected in the recent starts, the lack of “Red” Keywords along with the subtle “trips” in the shown Keywords there is enough to give longshot consideration.

#5 SILKY WARRIOR lost their top form and needed time, time that was given before returning in September. In those two return efforts, she showed progression and could take another step forward once again here.

Handicapping Analysis
Thu October 23rd, 2025

Jim's Picks

Hawthorne Race 1
Post Time 2:43 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

2 My Last Escapade - 3/1 | 5 Black Russian - 7/2 | 1 Jackson's Buddy - 2/1

Hawthorne Race 2
Post Time 3:19 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

1 Whatdoyouthinkmark - 9/5 | 6 King Anthony - 7/2 | 3 Ravin's Town - 9/2

Hawthorne Race 3
Post Time 3:51 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

6 Tango Mike Mike - 7/2 | 1 Byword - 3/1 | 2 Game Santa - 5/1

Hawthorne Race 4
Post Time 4:24 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

3 Church Pew - 9/5 | 5 Spicy Italian - 4/1 | 7 What's to Do - 9/2

Hawthorne Race 5
Post Time 4:53 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

6 All About Tonite - 5/1 | 8 Comiskey Park - 9/2 | 1 Racarino - 3/1

Hawthorne Race 6
Post Time 5:20 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

7 Front End - 7/2 | 4 Shake Up - 4/1 | 5 Dr. Perry - 5/1

Hawthorne Race 7
Post Time 5:49 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

2 Red Moscato - 8/1 | 1 Govenor Hank - 4/1 | 5 Easy Fast - 5/2

Hawthorne Race 8

Post Time 6:18 PM CST

Analysis by Jim Miller

10 Legally Lucky - 8/1 6 Little Dixie - 5/2 5 Silky Warrior [IRE] - 4/1

Handicapping Analysis
Thu October 23rd, 2025

Ron's Picks

Hawthorne Race 1

Post Time 2:43 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

2 My Last Escapade - 3/1 | 1 Jackson's Buddy - 2/1 | 4 Cruzin N Cursin - 5/1

2-MY LAST ESCAPADE has to break his maiden someday, doesn't he? Hopefully it's today. He's been knocking at the door for months with four seconds and a third in his last five. This might be his easiest field yet and probably his last hope to graduate at this meet. 1-JACKSON'S BUDDY is another in decent form, with seconds in his last two starts. However, he's been meeting Indiana breds and will be facing open company for the first time. Makes his first start for this barn but still think he's meeting tougher today. 4-CRUZIN AND CURSIN finished third, well behind top pick in last, but still beat half the field. Might expect at least as well today.

Hawthorne Race 2

Post Time 3:19 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

3 Ravin's Town - 9/2 | 2 Spanish Kiss - 5/1 | 6 King Anthony - 7/2

Off turf today and not sure of scratches so guess we'll just wing it. 3-RAVENS TOWN looks like the quickest of these. He does tend to run out of gas late but the short sprint distance and meeting his easiest field ever should enhance his chances. 2-SPANISH KISS had good speed in the past but think he will be coming late, if his recent races are any indication. He's been in good form in Iowa and the pace should definitely set up for him. 5-BALADINE takes a much-needed drop in class. He will be pressing the pace and could make the first, and winning, move if top pick tires.

Hawthorne Race 3

Post Time 3:51 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

3 Wolf Hunter - 9/2 | 4 Cool Lester Smooth - 5/2 | 1 Byword - 3/1 | 6 Tango Mike Mike - 7/2
2 Game Santa - 5/1 | 5 Skibidi Rizz - 6/1

This seems like a race any can win but it might be 3-WOLF HUNTER'S day to pass his prey. Hate his record of one win in 32 races but this versatile runner can close well and so many of his rivals are likely to display speed. 4-COOL LESTER SMOOTH is one of those likely to try for the lead. Don't think he's the quickest but he might show a more sustained effort that his other speedy rivals. 1-BYWORD didn't handle turf in last but he was in better form prior. Late runner narrowly missed at this level two races back. Might get all the marbles today. 6-TANGO MIKE MIKE finished second in his last two in Iowa and narrowly missed in last but that race was over two months ago and he's had only two drills since. On the other hand, his trainer wins with 30% of his first-time claims. 2-GAME SANTA was a sharp maiden winner in last but he's another that hasn't raced in a couple months and he's another with only two works since that last race. 5-SKIBIDI RIZZ is probably first from the gate but he's been stopping do badly that he's hard to recommend. But he is finally dropping to the right level. Will that be enough?

Hawthorne Race 4

Post Time 4:24 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

1 Mary Moonglow - 8/1 | 8 End of Innocence - 6/1 | 2 Regal Majesty - 5/2 | 7 What's to Do - 9/2

On turf, this race would be loaded with front end speed. Not sure who will be left after scratches. 1-MARY MOONGLOW is likely to break on top. She has always shown a good turn of early foot and she has done well on dirt. Plus, she's dropping back to the right level. This will be her first time racing around two turns but she generally stayed competitive throughout her races so she might be able to handle the distance. 8-END OF INNOCENCE was entered for main track only. She's dropping a notch and stretching out. The last time she ran at this distance and level she won by eight. 2-REGAL MAJESTY isn't as quick as top choice but she does own good speed and the ability to stay. She hadn't shown a lot in prior dirt attempts but she is in good form and might turn out to be the speed that lasts. 7-WHAT'S TO DO, stablemate of End of Innocence, showed little in her two Hawthorne dirt races but she did win by six, in Indiana, the last time she raced in a dirt route.

Hawthorne Race 5

Post Time 4:53 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

1 Racarino - 3/1 | 6 All About Tonite - 5/1 | 10 Land Mark Deal - 6/1

1-RACARINO could run them down. He finished fourth in one of his eight races this meet but he finished first or second in the other seven. The pace sets up. Can take them late. 6-ALL ABOUT TONITE heads back to the main track and drops to the right level. I would ignore his last couple on the weeds. He's been far better on dirt, especially when racing near this level. 10-LAND MARK DEAL was okay going long in the past but he's been far better sprinting late. Showed little in a route last time out but had a win and two thirds the last three times he sprinted.

Hawthorne Race 6

Post Time 5:20 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

1 Good Apple - 6/1 | 3 I Am Lowkey - 10/1 | 5 Dr. Perry - 5/1

Interestingly, most runners in this race are equally adept on dirt and turf. No guesses who will scratch. 1-GOOD APPLE looks like the one they have to catch. He's been in great form at Fairmount. And though he didn't run well in his lone race this meet, that was his first race of the year and he had been solid here in the past. 3-I AM LOWKEY has been either win or fold this year. He finished up the track in his two prior races on this track but he seems to be a legitimate threat in this spot. 5-DR. PERRY had been in good form prior to last. Those recent races were on turf, but two of his three victories were scored on dirt and he does appear to be the best closer in what could be a speed-filled race.

Hawthorne Race 7

Post Time 5:49 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

5 Easy Fast - 5/2 | 3 Bernie Lomax - 9/2 | 6 Got Ghosted - 8/1

5-EASY FAST looks like the one to beat. He ran well in all races since dropping in for a tag. He won his last after finishing second in his prior three. He's eligible for the claim today after running under the waiver claiming in last couple. Looks tough right back. 3-BERNIE LOMAX looks like the quickest of these. He's won far more races than any in here but remains eligible for the race because of the low claiming levels of his wins. He completely dominated the field in last, his first race after getting claimed by this barn. Two lackluster drills since his last race, two months ago, don't inspire a lot of confidence but he has to be given the benefit of the doubt. 6-GOT GHOSTED wasn't in the best of form for much of the year but he woke up and finished second, on turf, two races back at Canterbury and then shipped here to win his local debut. Takes on a bit better but she seems to be at the top of his game.

Hawthorne Race 8

Post Time 6:18 PM CST

Analysis by Ron Uchman

6 Little Dixie - 5/2 10 Legally Lucky - 8/1 1 She Be Sheehan - 12/1

6-LITTLE DIXIE could be tough. She's dropping a few levels to take on these rivals. Forget last on turf. She had been far more competitive in recent dirt contests. 10-LEGALLY LUCKY can wake up. She has had few opportunities to race lately, and it’s been three months since her last start. But she has trained well during that time, she’s dropping to the lowest level of her career, and she gets the top jock. 1-SHE BE SHEEHAN is worth a glance. Her recent races leave a lot to be desired but she is stretching to her best distance and runners from her barn do very well in their second starts after layoffs and those stretching out.